One chance for singing
To lose ourselves in such a simple melody.
One love worth saving
Is worth a million troubles if we make it.

[Chorus]
New York, can't find me
New York, New York

One life worth living
Could save us all or lose it's way completely
It's alright, if it's OK
To find a little peace of mind and hope it stays

New York, has her timing
New York, New York

Empty ourselves in this city.
Spend every wish on the way.
It leaves you with nothing to swing from.
But it's all right
