How would u feel, if I told u here and now
I wanna spend my whole life lovin you?
I know that it's real everytime look into your eyes
You Light a spark inside of me a flame that never dies
A State of blissful mystery intoxicates my mind
And willingly my heart it plays the fool

Blinded by love sweet love
What's come over me
Blinded by love sweet love
You're all that I see
I never felt so sure of any love before
It's only you I adore in my heart

What did I do, before I had u in my life?
Seems like I was born when I found u
Am I a fool to want u morning noon and nite
Well all I know is what I feel is more than I can fight
I surrender unto u anything that u desire
Cause my eyes can see no further than you smile

Blinded by love sweet love
What's come over me
Blinded by love sweet love
You're all that I see
I never felt so sure of any love before
It's only you I adore in my heart
