Distraction number one, her looks kill more than a shotgun Shakes it up a little downtown, with the right crowd,
But she always stands out You think it's all in good fun, you know it's not when she's done
What's she gonna do, haven't got a clue
Here's the situation, she's your medication

Like white lines on a mirror!

She's drugs, she's drugs, just one look and you get addicted
She's drugs, she's drugs, you took a look and now
you're hooked,
It's what I predicted (x2)

She's taking over now, she's in control, don't know how I've seen it with my own eyes, and I realise, she's always in disguise
There's no stop to the world she spins,
She looks like an angel, but she's all sin
Boy, you're so pathetic, you're never gonna get it
Here's the situation, she's your medication

Like white lines on a mirror!

She's drugs, she's drugs, just one look and you get
addicted
She's drugs, she's drugs, you took a look and now
you're hooked,
It's what I predicted (x2)

I want mymymymymymymymy my drugs(x2)

Look Out!

She's drugs, she's drugs, just one look and you get
addicted
She's drugs, she's drugs, you took a look and now
you're hooked,

It's what I predicted (x2)
