Say my name, baby
(Ooh, we love you, RB, check you every day on MTV)
Who da man, baby, who da man (you da man)
Who da man (you da man)
(Stargate)

When I was young I was a class clown with glasses
You know the type that you can burn mad ants with Get no romance with
I was a joke to look at so I had to be the funny man
Like who's the man (you the man)
Well, on my first date, I watched my car break down
Had to be the missing pounds needed for petrol
I was broke for petrol - we both had to push
The car up the hill to Kentucky Fried chill
And all the people on the bus died laughin'
(Ain't that Richard Blackwood)
(Boy you ain't mackin')
One day I'll make you eat your words
In the back of my mind I heard

Mama used to say, take your time, young man
Mama used to say, don't you rush to get old
Mama used to say, take it in your stride
And Mama used to say, live your life

(You the man)
(Ooh, we love you, RB)
On the comedy circuit, they were telling me what to do,
According to who
Is that a rule, Soul II Soul stayed true
And my uncle used to say stay you to break through Now I'm getting pounds and hugs from the people that I check for
From Birmingham, Brixton and more
Did nuff shows for no dough and no podiums
And only two people in the Coliseum
Can't go from the first to the fifth gear lookin' in my rear
'Cos I'm bound to hear
(From day one I had your back, where my drinks at)
There you go, tap water, Thames finest

It's only natural from a minus, who went to a plus
UK black bound to bust, only 'cos I knew who to trust, trust, trust

Mama used to say, take your time, young man
Mama used to say, don't you rush to get old
Mama used to say, take it in your stride
And Mama used to say, live your life

Say my name, baby
(Ooh, we love you, RB, check you every day on MTV)
Who da man
(You the man, baby boo)
(No matter what you do we got love for you)
Say my name, girlfriend
(Ooh, we love you, RB, check you every day on MTV)
Who da man, baby, who da man (you the man)
Who da man (you the man, you the man)

Look son, if you want to front on me
I'm a single you out every day on TV
And if you want more, Channel 4 know the score
Rollin' with the Richard Blackwood Show, where to go
Sky's the limit, I'm a light you can't dim it
On the silver screen, I'm a get up in it in a minute
It ain't about the Beamer or the Benz
I wanna raise the UK flag like Loose Ends, what (Mama used to say) what you say, huh, so what you say
(Take your time, you the man)
(Ooh, we love you, RB)
(Mama used to say) Say my name, say my name, yeah
(Live your life) Girls, finish off the track...

Mama used to say, take your time, young man
Mama used to say, don't you rush to get old
Mama used to say, take it in your stride
And Mama used to say, live your life

Mama used to say, take your time, young man
Mama used to say, don't you rush to get old
Mama used to say, take it in your stride
And Mama used to say, live your life
