I really want to know,
Really want to know my love
Where the wind
Keeps blowing away this life
Remember when we met
Secrets so well are kept
Far away drums
Beating all this time
So the words, the whispers from you, queen
Colours flying in my dreams
Shadows dancing on the walls
One great mystery
In which no one can see
Moving with such grace
Like a veil over the place
All we knew now we forget
Secrets so well are kept
Far away drums
Beating all this time
So the words, the whispers from you, queen
Colours flying in my dreams
Shadows dancing on the walls
