I'm always moving and ain't got the time to live it up a bit and stay up all night if you wanna meet up here's what you do give me just a second and I'll tell you the truth make sure that you're not easy to shock you need a little bit but I got a lot you're feeling itchy honey I understand you need a man with a natural tan

let the sun hit your skin burn it again and again now body's boiling
I like it tight
when it feels right
is usually night time
keep it rolling

I was born with the sun in my eyes don't need sunlight baby I prefer night I dig love but the way that you move makes me wanna ditch it and get on with the groove so how 'bout it is it feeling alright? moving fast but the bark doesn't bite let's grow up and kiss all night wake up in the morning I'll get out of your sight

body's boiling
when it feels right

oh yeah bodies boiling (x2)

I'm always moving and ain't got the time

body's boiling
when it feels right
