Distraction number one, her looks kill more than a shotgun
Shake it up a little downtown, with the right crowd
But she always stands out

You think it's all in good fun, you know it's not when she's done
What's she gonna do, haven't got a clue
Here's the situation, she's your medication

Like white lines on a mirror

She's drugs, she's drugs
Just one look and you get addicted
She's drugs, she's drugs
You took a look and now you're hooked, it's what I predicted

She's drugs, she's drugs
Just one look and you get addicted
She's drugs, she's drugs
You took a look and now you're hooked, it's what I
predicted

She's taking over now, she's in control, don't know how I've seen it with my own eyes
And I realize, she's always in disguise
There's no stop to the world she spins
She looks like an angel, but she's all sin
Now you're so pathetic, you're never gonna get it
Here's the situation, she's your medication

Like white lines on a mirror

She's drugs, she's drugs
Just one look and you get addicted
She's drugs, she's drugs
You took a look and now you're hooked, it's what I
predicted

She's drugs, she's drugs
Just one look and you get addicted

She's drugs, she's drugs
You took a look and now you're hooked, it's what I
predicted

I want my, my, my, my, my, my, my, my, my drugs
Look out

She's drugs, she's drugs
Just one look and you get addicted
She's drugs, she's drugs
You took a look and now you're hooked, it's what I
predicted

She's drugs, she's drugs
Just one look and you get addicted
She's drugs, she's drugs
