VERSE 1

Where are the warm, sweet nights
And where is the candlelight
Bright as the life and times that we once knew
And when is it healing time
And when does the peace of mind
Fill in the hole in my life where once was you

And where are all the bonds that we shared?
And when did you begin not to care?

CHORUS

Never mind the where, never mind the when
I could never love that way again
It doesn't matter where the fault may lie
I don't want to know the reason why
My heart told me one day
You and I were fine
Woke up one morning
And fate said never mind

Look at the state I'm in
How can the world still spin?
I'm trying to breathe again, but I can't seem to
They talk about laying low
They talk about letting go
They're talking 'cause they don't know I been run right through

And where are all the bonds that we shared?
And when did you begin not to care?

CHORUS

Never mind the where, never mind the when
I could never love that way again
It doesn't matter where the fault may lie
I don't want to know the reason why
My heart told me one day
You and I were fine
Woke up one morning
And fate said nevermind

BRIDGE

Never mind the how and when
Close your eyes and just pretend
That your life is still the same
And you never bore my name
Longing to be where you are
And wasting wishes on a star
Neither one will get me far
At the end of the day

CHORUS

Nevermind the where, nevermind the when
I could never love that way again
It doesn't matter where the fault may lie
I don't want to know the reason why
My heart told me one day
You and I were fine
Woke up one morning
And fate said nevermind
