(Lloyd)

I want to know, what it is that we're looking for You say to me, in a voice that's so soft and sore, I've got the key, it's just that i don't think anymore,
And i'm in the air, i just don't have a care and,
I thought you wanted to know, i thought you wanted to know,
I turn to you, when i'm feeling low or blue,
You turn to me, when you think that you've found a clue,
We turn around, and we never really stand quite still but,
I don't really care, i don't really care, i don't really care,
I don't really care, i don't really care, i don't really care,
anymore
I want to know, what we're looking for,
You say to me, in your voice that's so soft and sore,
I've hot the key, it's just that i don't think anymore
I thought you wanted to know, i thought you wanted to know
