Lost child Wild child

Where you running to?

Did it break down in your hometown?

So you're making up for lost ground.

I see it's true.

Lost child you wild child.

I see your cup is full.

You're still rolling in the morning.

We're still rocking.

Everybody else, they're all through.

Lost child Wild child

I'd like to run with you.

We'll hold hands and watch the moon glow.

Settle back and watch the river now.

Let it flow.

Yeah.

You're the lost child.

I'm the wild child.

I'd give it all to be with you.

You're the lost child.

I'm the wild child, babe.

I'd give it all to see it through.

Yeah.

Lost child Wild child.

I see you rolling a bone.

Lost child, you wild child.

You say that nobody's home.

You're still running from your feelings.

Don't you know that there's a healing going on right now?

Lost child wild thing.

I need to run with you.

We'll hold hands and watch the moon glow.

Settle back and watch the river now.

Let it flow.

Yeah.
