Can't Stop Crying

Forty days and nights without a word
Except for shouting at the ceiling
Me without you just seems so absurd
Like a tooth without the feeling
Tell me how
Not to want you

The sun is giving up on yet another day
And I cant stop crying
I wish that I cold be like you and just walk away
But I cant stop crying
Tears for a love that's passed me by

Shadow covered memories fuel the pain
And there's always yet another
Seems that you and I, we feel the same
About everything but each other
I dont know how
Not to love you now

Chorus 2x
