Iâ€™m searching for the cure
An antidote to heal me
Desperately I try to chase
Away the lines that haunt my face
But the truth wins every time

The lights are coming on
All the glitz is gone
Iâ€™m staring at the view from the inside

So this is the real me
I donâ€™t like what I see
Staring at the view from the inside

So welcome to my world
The ultimate illusion
Iâ€™ve hidden in words and melody
Now theyâ€™re cominâ€™ back on me
Yeah, the hand they bite is mine

The lights are coming on
All the glitz is gone
Iâ€™m staring at the view from the inside

So this is the real me
I donâ€™t like what I see
Staring at the view from the inside

Tryinâ€™ hard to just get by
But blessedly Iâ€™m failing

The lights are clearly on
All the glitz is gone
Iâ€™m staring at the view from the inside
So this is the real me
Do you like what you see
Staring at the view from the inside
