It only took a moment
A solitary glance
And I could hear the voice of rapture call
I've loved you from the distance
Afraid to take a chance
But now it seems I cant help but to fall

Imagine my surprise
To open up my eyes
And find that you were looking back

And suddenly
I cannot remember who I used to be
Like the rain this yearning washes over me
And all the pain I knew before is gone
Suddenly
I'm no longer drifting on that empty sea
And now I know that I believe in destiny
And mine is waiting right here in your arms

Yeah, yeah
I long to wake beside you
And battle in loves base
Washing all that's come before away
And in that frozen moment
As I receive your kiss
There will not be enough words to say

I wanna make you melt
Touch you like no one else
And do it all again a thousand times

And suddenly
I cannot remember who I used to be
Like the rain this yearning washes over me
And all the pain I knew before is gone
Suddenly
I'm no longer drifting on that empty sea
And now I know that I believe in destiny
And mine is waiting right here in your arms

I wanna make you melt
Touch you like no one else
And do it all again a thousand times

And suddenly
I cannot remember who I used to be
Like the rain this yearning washes over me
And all the pain I knew before is gone
Yeah suddenly
I'm no longer drifting on that empty sea
And now I know that I believe in destiny
And mine is waiting right here in your arms
In your arms
