Now you feel it, a shiver and you begin
Frozen breath that scrapes across the skin
And a sound youve never heard before, you screaming.
Welcome to the world of random noise
Where you simply haven't got a choice
When they push your levers and pull your strings.
Its another world, it's a better world that we bring.
Here you are on the planet of hot and cold
Where you'll do as exactly as you're told.
In a world of a 1000 furry toys
You can hear the screams
Of little girls and boys
Its a charming noise
If you really want that kind of thing, mama.
Now you feel it, a shiver and youve begun
When they pull those strings how you'll start to run !
And there's no stepping off or stepping down
Its another world and it's a better world,
That's what we have found
