Open your eyes and see
This feelin' could be forever
And I know that the love you're Hidin' could be...

More than the smile you're givin'
There's more in your life than you're livin'
And for all of the treasures of love
Your heart holds the key

What will the seasons bring you
Where will tomorrow leave you
You can be sure there's
Someone who cares

You've never seen me cryin' but
I've had a heart that was dyin'
You can be sure there's
Someone who cares

I've got to live for the laughter
It's the broken-hearted ones
That I'm after
Who hold to each day like the Sun never shines
