I've been away for such a long time
Every day i miss you
All those long and lonely nights
Counting the hours till i'm with you

Till then
I'll keep holding on
Praying i'm not wrong
Hoping that our love is still strong
(till then)
Keep our love alive
Hope you're satisfied
Till you're right here by my side
And the hands on the clock
Going round and round and round
But time don't seem to be moving at all

Every minute you were on my mind
Every day i wrote you
Half of me is lost in time
Half of me is always with you

Till then
I'll keep holding on
Praying i'm not wrong
Hoping that our love is still strong
(till then)
Keep our love alive
Hope you're satisfied
Till you're right here by my side
And the hands on the clock
Going round and round and round
But time don't seem to be moving at all

Another ticket for another trip
To another destination (destination)
It's just the thought of you that keeps me strong
Moving in the right direction

(choruses to fade)
