Well I know there are rumours
And I know there are lies
In my mind there is nothing
Nothing I can do 'cos I'm
Living my life without you

Oh I feel so downhearted
Never knowing where you are
And my heart is so lonely
Lonely and blue 'cos I'm
Living my life without you, son
Yes I'm living my life without you

Yes I know there are reasons
Why you're so far away
Could it be that you're leaving me
Without knowing what to say?
Ohh

If you knew what I'm feeling
If only you knew what I'm going through
In my life there is nothing
Nothing left to do while I'm
Living my life without you, son
Living my life without you
