There you are
You're at the top you drive your big, fancy car
And you shine your diamond rings on everybodys nose
And everybody knows who you are...

CHORUS

And you're the King of the Hill
And when you walk-a the world, it stands still
You got everything a man could ever want
High on Ego Mountain
Long live the King of the Hill

And there ya stand
So straight and tall, you're just one hell of a man
Who likes to make the scene
Cause you like to be seen
Oh, all that you can

You're the King of the Hill
And when you walk-a the world, it stands still
You got everything a man could ever want
High on Ego Mountain
Long live-a the King
Long live-a the King
Long live-a the King
Long live the King of the Hill

The King of the Hill...
