[Verse 1]

Let me walk with You on the narrow road
I know it may get lonely but I know I'm not alone I'll seek You in the wilderness, I know that's where You are
You whisper like the breeze, You're speaking to my heart
You say...

[Chorus]

The wide gate looks so beautiful but destruction is its end
Go against the stream, my friend and stand where angels fear to tread

[Verse 2]

At Your feet I lay my crowns
With my tears I sow into those who will one day
Know the glory of the narrow road
