(R. Ramdehal)

He comes in a dream to me, he comes when I'm sleeping
He says why are you troubled, and why are you weeping
In times of trouble, you must know where you stand In pain and in misery, and misery loves company No one's around to see you through, and you don't know what to do When you can't seem to find your ground, and you're head is spinnin'
When you're lost and no one's there to help you, Just Carry On
I'll carry you through these mines and battlefields, I've Got Your Hand
When you're in the trenches and you feel you need some air, Reach Up There Don't you give up, all you gotta do is call for me, I'll Be Right Here
I don't know where I'm goin', but I still keep on rollin' Blinded by a false vision, livin' in a contradiction
I've got a visual plan, my dreams are gonna come true It's always an uphill battle, takin' chances and makin' a gamble
You know he sees everything, he has written the commands
Showing the way to retribution, for you to understand When you're lost and no one's there to help you, Just Carry On
Someday you won't feel this pain, and life won't trouble you much You won't have to run this road again, through these fields of war
You come here once in a lifetime, choosing what is right and wrong Troubles that are terrorizin' you, one day, one day will soon be gone
And all of your actions they will speak, louder than words Listen what your heart says and believe, just be who you are
When you're lost, and no one's there to help you, Just

Carry Onâ€¦.
Many will come and go who say, that they know the way
They will all pass and you will live, live to see a brighter day They'll try to tell you that they, they have seen the new light
But my friend, wisdom is wisdom, and right, right will always be right Soon you will conquer all your fears, and you'll see the light very clear
What is real and false in life, you will see through your eyes
When you're lost, and no one's there to help you, Just Carry Onâ€¦.
