Life, and all the lessons I've learned..
I done been through it all, I done had people try take my life...
Leave me for dead, but victories that much greater when you climb out from the gutter, ya feel me

Yous a bitch yous a lame yous a coward,
I thought ur love was sweet until it turned sour,
You snuck up from the back and stabbed me,
I aint even see it coming but I been here bleeding for weeks,
Got my nervous system twisted over you,
Im all cold now so my blood runs blue.
Thought we were timeless, but you were spineless,
Gave me a death certificate but I wont sign it

No, I will not go, even thou that blow knocked me on the flo'
But you aint seen the last of me, turn your back on me
But you'll regret it, that's right you messed up homie
You should've killed me.

[Rick Ross:]Why ya hatin on me cause I'm elevatin homie
Every day I find another way to put that paper on me
When the top down ride like the president
Flyest thing in the game and I'm talking present tense Go ahead and squeeze that trigger get rid of that evidence
Look me in my eye, you can't because I'm heaven sent
I will never die, haters fail every time they try
What if I kill em first, your honor is that justified

You tried to take me out the game
But I'm a soldier, you shot me in the heart
And I came back on ya, aint got the juice to put me down
I am the truth, all my kanye in this booth getting it in that's the proof
Tried to destroy me and turn me into a monster
But their aint been enough to count that I aint conquer

And you no different, just another name on the list

Yea I'm wounded but I'm still that bitch

No, I will not go, even thou that blow knocked me on the flo'

But you aint seen the last of me, turn your back on me
But you'll regret it, that's right you messed up homie
You should've killed me

[Rick Ross:]Why ya hatin on me cause I'm elevatin homie

Every day I find another way to put that paper on me
When the top down ride like the president
Flyest thing in the game and I'm talking present tense
Go ahead and squeeze that trigger get rid of that evidence

Look me in my eye, you can't because I'm heaven sent
I will never die, haters fail every time they try
What if I kill em first, your honor is that justified

Thought that I was finished, thought that you had handled your business

Thought you knew how it ended, apparently you didn't Think that I wont pull through and my last breath you thought I blew it

And now who lookin stupid, stupid
You underestimated thought I would lay down and take it

That's where you made your mistake, And the monster has been awoken

Ready for war, been there before, now it's time to even the score

You shoulda killed me

[Rick Ross]Why ya hatin on me cause I'm elevatin homie

Every day I find another way to put that paper on me
When the top down ride like the president
Flyest thing in the game and I'm talking present tense
Go ahead and squeeze that trigger get rid of that evidence

Look me in my eye, you can't because I'm heaven sent
I will never die, haters fail every time they try
What if I kill em first, your honor is that justified
