It is care,

Which somebody brings it in your life,

But let me love you one more time,

It is not adventure,

It is suspicion,

He knows that you are here,

You are next,

And I can't rescue you.

What is happening to us,

You are already saint,

But let me try one more time,

I don't like to fall in love,

Just to confirm

That the past is returned.

I am dangerous

When we are alone,

You are on my skin,

You are returning on my mind, Constantine,

That worries me,

I can't beat you.

What is happening with us,

You are already saint,
But let me try one more time,
I don't like to fall in love
Just to confirm,
And to play with love
One more time
