You are coming like storm,
Your clouse flys,
You are cutting my shirt,
You are coming straight to me,
Almost obsessive,
Don't dissimulate that you need me,
Now, love game,
Complaint and softness,
Sweat, you and me,
And all this rotation,
Don't tell me,
Don't look at me,
But, to me sadness is coming,
And to you, the life is coming.
Don't torment me more,
Let me to dream one moment,
Don't torment me more,
As I am trembling,
Don't torment me more,
Let me enjoy in this breath of air.
You are coming,

I am only thinking about you,
When you love me,
Or you need me,
But, you know that I can't love you this way,
It is too tensely,
Because of that we are not together,
When life goes on.
Don't torment me more,
Let me to dream one moment,
Don't torment me more,
As I am trembling,
You are coming back right now,
Let me enjoy in this breath of air,
Shut up woman,
Love me, but love me easy
