I met you on a sigh
An accidental high
And i missed you before i met you
Your lips i want to taste
Its not the time and place
And it can't be
I'm sorry
It's like we've talked a thousand times
And made love with the rhymes
But tonight is not the night
I'm with somebody else and i can't lie
With me and you it's never good bye
Let's save the dance for another life

I'm guilty in my mind
Cos i can close my eyes
My spirit can hear it
So let the music play
The changes i can't make
To heal you
Conceal you
It's like we've walked a thousand miles
To make love with our eyes
But tonight is not the night
I'm with somebody else and i can't lie
With me and you it's never good bye
Oh
Let's save the dance for another life
Walk away
But i can never be without you
Without you
Without you
I wish that i could tell you that tomorrow's all about you
But there's no time for me to, no
Oh, tonight is not the night
Tonight is not the night
I'm with somebody else
And i can't lie
With me and you it's never good bye
Just save the dance for another life
But tonight is not the night
I'm with somebody else and

I don't want to watch you walk away
With me and you it's never good bye
Just save the dance for another life
Just save the dance for another life
Just save the dance for another life
