You and I, crazy in love

When "one" learns to be "two"

In passion

And (learns) to travel and to dream and to dream

Sincerely

And now I really know where I'm going

And where I will go for you, love

We are the seed

Of a new life

And from each sorrow

We'll make laughter (Repeat)

By thinking with the heart

You and I are right

Because love

Only gives the truth, honestly

Without conditions

That's why I know where I'm going

(And) where I will go for you, love

We are the seed

Of a new life

And from each sorrow

We'll make laughter... (Repeat)

Your mouth on mine

Your skin against mine

My thirst drinking your water

We are the seed

Your hand in mine

Your skin against mine

Joining my scent with your honey

We are the seed

We are the seed

Of a new life

And from each sorrow

We'll make laughter... (Repeat)

We'll make laughter... (Repeat
