Something tells me you're not coming back

I'm certain that this time

There's no going back

After everything I went to tell you no

You know well that it's not certain

I'm dying inside

And now I realize

That without you I'm nothing

I've lost the strength

I've lost the desire

I tried to find you

In other people

They're not the same

It's not the same

An abyss separates us

Come back

Because without you my life just goes by

Come back

Because I can't breathe if you're not here

Come back

No one can take your place

There's so much space
If you're not here
A minute doesn't go by that I don't think (about you)
Without you my life passes slowly by Something tells me
That it's not worth it
So many sleepless nights
Hugging my pillow
If I could I'd turn back time
Now that I understand you
Now that I've lost you
And despite that I went to tell you no
Without a doubt I'm still here begging you
Come back
Because without you my life just goes by.
