Do you see it takes everything to be in this moment
I can't just end up with a photograph of the one that I lost

Is it safe to love you?

Will you turn around & tell me its already over?
Will you tear my heart up & tell me how sorry you are?

Well, years play and memories stay and now I believe
That my heart will simply fall apart in so many pieces

If you turn around and tell me its already over
If you tear my heart up and tell me it just wasn't meant
to be

Will you turn around and tell me its already over?
Will you tear my heart up and tell me how sorry you
are?

Is it safe to love you?
Is it safe?
Is it safe to love you?

If you turn around and tell me its already over
If you tear my heart up and tell me it just wasn't meant
to be

Will you turn around and tell me its already over?
Will you tear my heart up and tell me how sorry you
are?
