Do I need to be invisible to just survive
Or am I foolishly wasting my time
Try so hard to quiet my expensive dreams
Before they take me out, leave me wondering

Baby, it's just You & Me, we got a thing they cant shake
Maybe, it's a little hard sometimes to take
But I'll tell you something, its a life worth living
Just so you know, I wouldnt give it up, no.

Is it all a market war in this economy
Filling up headlines with our fantasy
System fails hard & we fall apart sometimes
But then you pull me back with your quiet smile
