Time touches my shore, broken up from the storm
Lost at sea, and then you found me
Well, I can't afford to throw my heart on the floor
I want to believe this is for real

Cause the tears will be all mine if you walk away
Would you be fine?

(Cause), it'll bleed, it'll hurt
It'll take everything to say that I'm yours
It'll sink deep into my heart
If you fall in love and fall right back out
It'll crush, it'll leave me blown away
But I'll regret every single day
If I don't try with you
Youre worth the pain I'm going through
I'll give myself, give my self away
And Ill take a step of faith

The emptiness in me, from the wreckage of my dreams
All alone - were you rescuing?
Will you take apart this man, leave your shadow in the sand
Or be a shelter & my way home?

But the tears will be all mine if you walk away
Would you be fine?

(Cause), it'll bleed, it'll hurt
It'll take everything to say that I'm yours
It'll sink deep into my heart
If you fall in love and fall right back out
It'll crush, it'll leave me blown away
But I'll regret every single day
If I don't try with you
Youre worth the pain I'm going through
I'll give myself, give my self away
And take a step of faith
