Love isn't easy
its the hardest thing to ever loose But I'm gonna hope & I'm gonna believe in you well maybe I'm dreamingwe can finally see a day discover that life is worth the pain of humanity & heartache between the give & take

So, here's a little song to remind you
Here's a little piece of my soul
Don't think you're all alone
And here's another dream that we're finding what does it take to remind you
I'll be there by your side
Angel, I will never let you go tell me you theories and everything you don't say is it a heart your afraid to break?

baby, the truth is "love is not for the faint" no matter how long its gonna take The best things in life are worth it when you wait

Here's a little piece of my soul
And here's another dream that we're finding
what does it take to remind you
I'll be there by your side
Angel, I will never let you go

With the secrets of our past I don't want to start again, with somebody else
and give up the best of myself I'll say it to you Angel
