Hear come the tear drops falling again,
Seems like the night has come to an end,
I wonder why I feel like my heart is failing me.

When you were here I knew what to do
Now I just waste time thinking of you
I wonder why I feel like my heart is failing me.

I remember, the day that I found you
How I'm longing, to still be around you
But I wait hoping you'll back to me.

Never a single day passes by
When I don't feel a part of me die.
I wonder why I feel like my heart is failing me.
