Your jealousy has built a fire around your house and i hope these flames sear your Fucking mouth shut . gossip, rumors...i was just another 5 minute movie to hit your Empty theatre. i was just another 5 minute story. was it a lack respect that turned Our friendship so sour? i will not feel sorry for you anymore. i hope this hits you Right between the fucking eyes and i have for you these words; go go go / fight fight Fight/ kill kill kill we forged this hammer for one reason , to crush every bone that Youve pampered.sleep tonight with the ashes and decorate your heart with death. sleep Tonight and let god tell you his secrets because you're sure as fuck gonna need to Know something as fake as waking up.
