Love can always bring you happines
When the day is though
Oh my love will never die
As long as I have you

Anyway it doesn't matter
If you're sad and blue
So I say this winter's day
Getting by the same old way

I can the little sparrows on my windowpane
Washing and a splashing in the rain
While you're sitting knitting happy just the same

Anyway it doesn't matter
If you're sad and blue
So I say this winter's day
Getting by the same old way

I can the little sparrows on my windowpane
Washing and a splashing in the rain
While you're sitting knitting happy just the same

Love can always bring you happines
When the day is though
Oh my love will never die
As long as I have you
Love can always bring you happines
When the day is though
Oh my love will never die
As long as I have you
