My abhorrence toward those people that I see around
The way they act, the way they think, make me feel down
I hate these kind of people, they can rot in hell
Somehow, somehow, I think they should be killed
These people get on my fucken nerves
They deserve to die
All they do is get in my fucken way

Then to them I love to say and pray
I hope you die in a hotel fire
I hope you die in a hotel fire
I hope you die in a hotel fire
I hope you die in a hotel fire
Cynical attitudes from boastful people
I hope you die in a hotel fire
