"Empty Hearts"

Are you leaving, are you going?
Did you think you could lose that feeling without me knowing?
Are you wishing you'd never met me?
Does it take some train whistle blowin' to forget me?
All the losing and the knowing
That you love her still
Could be nothing to what empty hearts must feel
Tell me what an empty heart must feel
Are you wishing you'd never met me?
Does it take some train whistle blowin' to forget me?
All the losing and the knowing
That you love her still
Could be nothing to what empty hearts must feel
Tell me what an empty heart must feel
