Here we lay face to face once again
The silence cuts like a knife as we pretend
And I'm wondering who will be the first
To say what we both know
We're just holding on to "could have been's"
And we should be letting go

It feels like you're a million miles away
As your lying here with me tonight
And I can't even find the words to say
I can't find a way to make it right
And we both know that the stories ending
We played the part but we're just pretending
And I can't hide the tears
Cause even though you're here
Feels like you're a million miles away

Awayâ€¦!

Was it me? Or was it you?
That broke away from what we were
It's like the seasons love has changed
And every time I think about it
It tears me up inside
Like the rivers of emotion
But I've got no more tears to cry

It feels like you're a million miles away
As your lying here with me tonight
And I can't even find the words to say
I can't find a way to make it right
And we both know that the stories ending
We played the part but we're just pretending
And I can't hide the tears
Cause even though you're here
Feels like you're a million miles away

Awayâ€¦!

We can try to talk it over
But we've walked that road before

Boy our song has played its last note
And we both know for sure
That it's time to close that door

It feels like you're a million miles away
As your lying here with me tonight
And I can't even find the words to say
I can't find a way to make it right
And we both know that the stories ending
We played the part but we're just pretending
And I can't hide the tears
Cause even though you're here

A million miles away...
