It's dark in the day, now say, now don't complain
Look up the sun it's just a cloud away
You so afraid to cry, but your heart be feeling dry
It's time to change

But you keep thundering, thundering
I'm wondering, wondering why you keep thundering
Wont you just pray, and get it over with

Tonight feel the pain, now baby I wont complain
I hear ya saying look up the sun it's just a cloud away
And I was so afraid to cry
And when you need a way to ride, that's the way

Keep thundering, thundering
I'm wondering, wondering why you keep thundering
Won't you just fucking rain and get it over with
And get it over with
I see you rolling it
Let's get it over with
Get high and float again
Roll up and go again
I see you rolling it
Let's get it over with
Get high and float again
Roll up and go again

It's alright we can roll in the clouds
Getting high we can float in the clouds
It's alright we can roll in the clouds
Getting high we can float in the clouds
It's alright we can roll in the clouds
Getting high we can float in the clouds
It's alright we can roll in the clouds
Getting high we can float in the clouds

Keep thundering, thundering
I'm wondering, wondering why it keep thundering
Want to just fucking rage and get it over with
And get it over with
And get it over with

It's alright we can roll in the clouds
Getting high we can float in the clouds
It's alright we can roll in the clouds

Getting high we can float in the clouds
It's alright we can roll in the clouds
Getting high we can float in the clouds

We should be lightning up
We should be lightning up
We should be lightning up
Start it with a lightning

It's dark in the day, now say, now don't complain
Look up the sun it's just a cloud away
