A Million Miles Away

Rihanna

Composi~o~o: Indispon~vel

Here we lay face to face once again
The silence cuts like a knife as we pretend
And i'm wonderin who will be the first
To say what we both know
We're just holding on to 'could have beens'
When we should be lettin' go

It feels like you're a million miles away
As your lyin' here with me tonight
And i can't even find the words to say
I can't find a way to make it right
And we both know that the story's ending
We play the part but we're just pretendin'
And i can't hide the tears
Cause even though your here
It feels like you a million miles away

Was it me or was it you that broke away
What we were was like the seasons
Love has changed
And everytime i think about it
It tears me up inside
Of emotions
But i got no more tears to cry

It feels like you're a million miles away
As your lyin' here with me tonight
And i can't even find the words to say
I can't find a way to make it right
And we both know that the story's ending
We play the part but we're just pretendin'
And i can't hide the tears
Cause even though your here
It feels like you a million miles away

We can try to talk it over
But we've walked that road before
Boy our song has played it's last note

And we both know for sure
That it's time to close that door

It feels like you're a million miles away
As your lyin' here with me tonight
I can't even find the words to say
I can't find a way to make it right
We both know that the story's ending
We play the part but we're just pretendin'
And i can't hide the tears
Cause even though your here
It feels like you a million miles away
Yeah, a million miles away
