City lights don't shine as bright when we're apart
Baby you have got the keys to my heart
Promise that you'll never leave me in the dark
And if I need your light be my star.

You say you love me, love me, love me
But that don't do nothing for me
You've gotta do more than tell me what you're feeling
Cause if you want me, want me, want me
I better become your only
That's the only way that I'll be waiting ooh.

Cause I would just die without it and there ain't no doubt about it
Your love, your love, your love
Cause I would never make it without it and there ain't no doubt about it
Your love, your love, your love.

Like a flame that flickers in
Come on light my fire
Love me like there is no end
Till the end of time.

You say you love me, love me, love me
But that don't do nothing for me
You've gotta do more than tell me what you're feeling
Cause if you want me, want me, want me
I better become your only
That's the only way that I'll be waiting ooh.

Cause I would just die without it and there ain't no doubt about it
Your love, your love, your love
Cause I would never make it without it and there ain't no doubt about it
Your love, your love, your love.

Cause I would just die without it and there ain't no doubt about it
Your love, your love, your love

Cause I would never make it without it and there ain't no doubt about it
Your love, your love, your love. (2x)

Cause I would just die without it
Your love, your love, your love, your love.
