-verse 1-

[Rihanna]

I Remember when the world was just me and my mama all i waited for was to wear my dresses in the summer nothing else seemed that important to me after all i was only young you see now im growing up to become another little woman hopefully its a new start and a new beginnig im not so innocent now i got big things ahead of me now i remember when we used to play kids chase didnt have to worry about getting them straight A's life was simple then life was life was life was simple then i remember when we used to play mommies and daddies the biggest beef that we had would be who is the mommies woahh life was simple then life was life was life was simple then

-Chorus-

[ScarFace]

I miss them younger years primary school free time i even miss listening to story time these are the days that will never get back when we were painting pictures and we just kick back [Rihanna]

Those younger years primary school free time
i even miss listening to story time those are the days that will never get back when we were painting pictures when we just kick back

-verse 2-

[ScarFace]

Look at me now next year il be 16 but i still look back at primary school life and its routines tuesdays first lesson always were abit of maths and at the end we went over made sure we learnt all the task's learning objectives for thursdays were to complete abit more on forces and made sure we knew what we learnt most lunchtimes all we did was play family had these memories were all happy not one single sad, but there are a couple of sad ones that i keep in my heart rest in peace hugo god took our friendship apart its been 8 years but im still pondering why it happend why your so far away its like earth too saturn although your gone you will never be forgotten the love i have for you hugo that will never rotten so yeh these are a few things from my younger years as you can see it wern't all happy times there were a couple of tears

-chorus-

[Rihanna]

Those younger years primary school free time
i even miss listening to story time
those are the days that will never get back
when we were painting pictures when we just kick back
[ScarFace]
I miss them younger years primary school free time

these are the days that will never get back

-verse 3-

[Rihanna]

What am i gonna do now times ticking and its moving on im growing older hopefully wiser and time will tell reminiscing back on them old days when life was easy thats what pleased me [ScarFace]
we used to swing on them swings and slide on them slides
but as i got older its just been money on my mind but i wanna go back to them simpler days when life itself didn't feel like a maze the one thing i miss about it all is nursery when everyday all we did was revise the a-b-c memories like this i know that il miss nothing we can do now but sit back and reminisce

-chorus-

[Rihanna]

Those younger years primary school free time
i even miss listening to story time

those are the days that will never get back
when we were painting pictures when we just kick back
[ScarFace]
I miss them younger years primary school free time
i even miss listening to story time
these are the days that will never get back

[Rihanna]
Those younger years primary school free time
i even miss listening to story time
those are the days that will never get back
when we were painting pictures when we just kick back
[ScarFace]
I miss them younger years primary school free time
i even miss listening to story time
these are the days that will never get back

[Rihanna]
Those younger years primary school free time
i even miss listening to story time
those are the days that will never get back
when we were painting pictures when we just kick back
[ScarFace]
I miss them younger years primary school free time
i even miss listening to story time
these are the days that will never get back
