(If only you)

Look where we are falling apart
And nothing seems to mend
This state of you, this state of me

Who do you think you're fooling now?
I guess we'll never find it out.
Who do you think you're fooling now, now?
If only you, if only you, could see that I'm burning,
If only you, could know how I'm hurting
All for you
If only you
(If only you)

I guess it's all right I keep my head high
You'll never see me cry
Confused over you, better by me, yeah

Who do you think you're fooling now?
I guess we'll never find it out.

Who do you think you're fooling now, now?
If only you, if only you, could see that I'm burning,
If only you, could know how I'm hurting
All for you
If only you

If only you, would know me better
If only you, would listen better
If only you, would see me better
If only you, would hear me better
Set me free, before you press delete
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)

If only you, could see that I'm burning,
If only you, would know how I'm hurting,
All for you
(If only you)
If only you
(You, Baby, if only you)
If only you
