Wasn't too long ago
I was dyin' of an empty heart
When you get lonely
Gets so easy to fall apart

Stayin' up all night
Lookin' for trouble soon as it would start
Then there was you there lovin' me
Waitin' for me to get smart

You got a nice way of believin' in me
You got a nice way of tellin' me so, so I know
You got a nice way of believin' in me
You got a nice way, let me so, so I know

Bein' in love with you
Is like growin' up into a child
All you gotta do is look at me
Nothin' I can do but smile

Back a few years ago I was blind
Now I can see for miles
Baby, you saved me, lovin' me
Will you stay for a while?

You got a nice way of believin' in me
You got a nice way of tellin' me so, so I know
You got a nice way of believin' in me
You got a nice way, tell me so, so I know

Tell me you love me, baby
Tell me once again
Baby, it's good this lovin' you
Knowin' that you're my friend

You got a nice way of believin' in me
You got a nice way of tellin' me so, so I know
You got a nice way of believin' in me
You got a nice way of tellin' me so, so I know

You got a nice way
You got a nice way of tellin' me so, so I know

You got a nice way
You got a nice way
