wait
I'm not listening to you now I wasn't listening to you then I know that nothing will be the same again there's only so much I can handle only so much I can take before my knees start to buckle and my arms start to shake have we been here before?
will we be here again?
I don't know how much of me you expect
standing here right now I beg for you to let go I dread the day you finally do I fight for your attention too little too late or too much too soon and how will this plague the time we share from here on out and how long will this taint all these words spilling from my mouth

have we been here before?
will we be here again?
I don't know how much more of me you expect
standing here
have we been here before?
will we be here again?
I don't know how much more of me you expect
