Send "Satelite" Ringtone to your Cell

You can't feel the heat until you hold your hand over the flame
You have to cross the line just to remember where it lays
You won't know your worth now, son, until you take a hit
And you won't find the beat until you lose yourself in it

That's why we won't back down, we won't run and hide
Yeah 'cause these are the things that we can't deny
I'm passing over you like a satellite
So catch me if I fall

That's why we stick to your game plans and PARTY
LINES
But at night we're conspiring by candlelight
We are the orphans of the American dream
So shine your light on me

You can't fill your cup until you empty all it has You can't understand what lays ahead if you don't understand the past
You'll never learn the fight now till you're standing at the cliff
And you can't truly love until you've given up on it

That's why we won't back down, we won't run and hide
Yeah 'cause these are the things that we can't deny
I'm passing over you like a satellite
So catch me if I fall

That's why we stick to your game plans and pointed lies
But at night we're conspiring by candlelight
We are the orphans of the American dream
So shine your light on me

But she told me that she never could face the world again, so I offered up a hand

We'll sneak out while they sleep and sail off in the night

We'll come clean and start over the rest of our lives
When we're gone, we'll stay gone, out of sight, out of
mind
It's not too late, we have the rest of our lives

We'll sneak out while they sleep and sail off in the night
We'll come clean and start over the rest of our lives
When we're gone, we'll stay gone, out of sight, out of
mind
It's not too late, we have the rest of our lives
The rest of our lives

Because we won't back down, we won't run and hide
Yeah 'cause these are the things that we can't deny
I'm passing over you like a satellite
So catch me if I fall

That's why we stick to your game plans and pointed lies
But at night we're conspiring by candlelight
We are the orphans of the American dream
So shine your light on me

No, we won't back down, we won't run and hide
Yeah 'cause these are the things that we can't deny
I'm passing over you like a satellite
Cos these are the things that we can't deny, no
This is a life that you can't deny yours now
