Below the surface I find what is real a painful truth to reveal We are all standing like automatons in line don't you see that we all share the same pathetic style?

Reject the mould
unclose the riddle that never lets you grow
We need to molt
and push the wheel that never seems to roll

We are simple puppets with no individual viewpoint Take your place-card and sit down

Reject the mould
unclose the riddle that never lets you go

Chorus:
Delete the way and now turn yourself
Into a mystic soul
Delete the way and now be the weird, Be their denial We walk following a stranger's footsteps that will always take us to conquered lands

Reject the mould
unclose the riddle that never lets you grow
We need to molt
and push the wheel that never seems to roll

Chorus

What would you sacrifice what would you exchange for a piece of authenticity?

Chorus

To be a mystic soul inside this world
Delete the way and now be the weird Be their denial
