"Missiles"

I'm just a soldier, trying to survive just one more day
Crossing borders through a battlefield that we made
And I can't get over every wall you've built up around your heart
There's no getting through all these landmines that we lay

Now we're too deep in this love, for sure
Stuck in the wings of a fighter jet, waiting for war
Cause you and I are like missiles in the sky
We go uh-uh-uh-up
We go uh-uh-uh-up
And you and I were both born to collide
And blow uh-uh-uh-up
We blow uh-uh-uh-up
When we're together, explode
Detonation, up in smoke
This love is over and done, explode
Detonation, up in smoke
This love is over, over

Playing these war games
Got us in this still make love head to head
Pretending we're not self-destructing again
Now we're trying to fight it
When the both of us know it wouldn't work out no more
Now it's gone in unexploded in our hands

Cause you and I are like missiles in the sky
We go uh-uh-uh-up
We go uh-uh-uh-up
And you and I were both born to collide
And blow uh-uh-uh-up
We blow uh-uh-uh-up
When we're together, explode
Detonation, up in smoke
This love is over and done, explode
Detonation, up in smoke
This love is over, over

No word of a lie was feeling the vibe

We were meant to touch love and collide,
Explode in the sky, if she was a missile
Wouldn't mind to touch space in a minute and die anytime
But that's changed though
She's not the same love of my life
Thought this could have be the one
But things can change in one blink of an eye

See these missiles fly high
You and me, missiles fly high
See these missiles fly high
You and me, missiles fly high

Cause you and I are like missiles in the sky
We go uh-uh-uh-up
We go uh-uh-uh-up
And you and I are both born to collide
And blow uh-uh-uh-up
We blow uh-uh-uh-up
When we're together, explode
Detonation, up in smoke
This love is over and done, explode
Detonation, up in smoke
This love is over, over

See these missiles fly high
You and me, missiles fly high
See these missiles fly high
You and me, missiles fly high
See these missiles fly high
You and me, missiles fly high
