You're wishing for something
But hey, I wish you try to get
Closer to me
Instead of looking all around

One time forgiving
But two times I'm leaving
The next look you'll see that it's gone

I'm wishing for something
But hey, I wish you settle down
I know you love me
But I know you've been sleeping around

One time forgiving
But two times I'm leaving
Next time, make sure

When you live your life so long
You'll think way back and you know
Cold winds will blow
What goes around comes around
You'll wish for things, but you know
Cold winds will blow

You're wishing for something
But hey, I wish you try to get
Closer to me
Instead of looking all around

One time forgiving
But two times I'm leaving
Next time, make sure

When you live your life so long
You'll think way back and you know
Cold winds will blow
What goes around comes around
You'll wish for things, but you know
Cold winds will blow

[Interlude]

You're wishing for something

When you live your life so long [When you're living your life]

You'll think way back and you know, oh

Cold winds will blow

What goes around comes around [What goes around comes around]

You'll wish for things, but you know

Cold winds will blow

When you live your life so long [Oh, when you're living your life]

You'll think way back and you know

[You'll think way back and you know]

Cold winds will blow

What goes around comes around

You'll wish for things, but you know [Hey, you, you'll wish for... oh...]

Cold winds will blow

When you live your life so long [When you're living your life]

You'll think way back and you know

Cold winds will blow... whoa...
