

Dansero "Countdown"

Visit "Countdown" on MotoLyrics.com

Driving down your street
At one twenty miles or so
I know just where to go
I'm standing outside of your door

So lost in love
And there is so little time
I've got to have you here right with me
Or I'm going out of my mind

(Chorus)
I Countdown the time
I Countdown the time till you're mine
I Countdown the time
I Countdown the time till you're mine

Oh for a taste of your love and your lips

Such forbidden desire
I can't get much higher
Or try to explain

So lost in love
And there is so little time
I've got to have you here right with me
Or I'm going out of my mind

(Chorus)

Countdown, baby coming down your street
I'll knock down all your suitors that I meet
Countdown, baby there's no need to fear
I'll be the one standing when the smoke has cleared
