I'm on my feet again
Back on the street again
Searching for the girl
Who owns my heart

Callous eyes that do not care or see
Hardened souls that cry out jealousy
I won't leave this life
Before she's mine

(Chorus)
Drag me through the streets
Screaming and kicking and crying out loud
I'm searching everywhere
A heartbreaker can be found

Every step brings me closer
Not playing dead or rolling over

Sentenced to this dream
My fantasy

My heart, it breaks with every beat
Stuck in my throat, I cannot speak
I won't let another man
Take her from me

(Chorus)
(Chorus)

Heartbreaker, I'm moving through the streets
Heartbreaker, She's one step ahead of me
Heartbreaker, following the trail she makes
Heartbreaker, paved with all the hearts she breaks
