Does a black heart love the same
And can a pair of these stay in love?
Hers is a sweet ebony and mine is a lightless wonder
With a kiss I'll close my eyes and melt into her soul
She blew my mind in Poughkeepsie
And laid it out in Providence, Rhode Island

Desperation like the marks I left on your back,
It's now or never love so say something back
Dirty nothing more If this is the last time
I'm going to freeze it, I'm going to freeze it

I'll make you hurt like I do, and I'll never think twice

I'll tear your heart out
Oh ex-love of mine
Sing that song of loneliness
That one that no one hears but you
Then you'll hurt like I do

I'll make you hurt like I do, and I'll never think twice
